

Strategies for Expanding SRAE Programming at the Local Level

A SRAE Grantee Panel

Presenters: Thelma Moton, Cliff Baskerville, and Peggy Pecchio

Moderator: Mary Anne Mosack

Presented: September 17, 2020

ADMINISTRATION FOR CHILDREN & FAMILIES

FYSB Family & Youth
Services Bureau

Adolescent Pregnancy
Prevention Program

Objectives

- Examine proven and innovative ways to increase SRAE programming at the local level
- Recognize unique opportunities for implementing SRAE in diverse community settings

Meet the Panel

- Thelma Moton, SRAS, is the founder and executive director of Choosing to Excel (C2E) in Conway, AR, directing a multi-faceted program that provides quality programming supporting positive youth development for all youth.
- Peggy Pecchio, B.S., SRAS, is the Executive Director for OK, Inc., a community-based nonprofit in Northeast OH, one of the longest-running relationship education programs in the country.
- Cliff Baskerville, B.A., SRAS, is Vice President at Choosing the Best Publishing, where he works with thousands of teachers and teens throughout the country.
- Mary Anne Mosack, B.A., SRAST, President/CEO, Ascend, Panel Moderator

Topic #1: Strategies for Success

Please share your most successful strategies for expanding your SRAE programs into schools, youth-serving agencies, and other community venues.

Topic #2: Challenges in Expanding SRAE Programs

What are the biggest challenges you have encountered in expanding SRAE in your community or state?

Contact Information

Peggy Pecchio

ppecchio@operationkeepsake.com

Cliff Baskerville

cbaskerville@ctbpublishing.com

Thelma Moton

motont@conwayschools.net

Mary Anne Mosack

info@weascend.org

QUESTIONS?

PRESENTED BY

SRAETTA

Sexual Risk Avoidance Education
Training and Technical Assistance

ADMINISTRATION FOR
CHILDREN & FAMILIES

FYSB Family & Youth
Services Bureau

Adolescent Pregnancy
Prevention Program